“ Sending my sincere condolences and best wishes to all of Alice's family. Alice was one of the kindest and most generous people I have had the opportunity to meet. She has made an indelible and historic contribution to the quality of life her on the central Oregon coast through her extraordinary foresight and tireless efforts in bring about the realization of the Newport Performing Arts Center. For Alice's efforts, I for one will be forever grateful. Thank you wonderful lady. I've been blessed by you and will carry nothing but fond memories for the rest of my life.
