“ I met Allen almost 34 years ago when we were each living in an apartment complex in Springfield. We were both single parents at the time and I was so impressed with his devotion to his three young children. Even when he moved out of the area, he would faithfully drive back to the Eugene/Springfield area, pick up the kids, drive them back to his home and return them, sometimes the next day. When Allen and Tami were married, it was obvious how much they loved each other. My heart goes out to their families.
