“ I just learned of Brendan's passing and want to express my belated condolences to his family and friends who I am sure miss him dearly. I also grew up in Albany, and Brendan and I were Little League teammates. I remember him fondly as a great guy, friendly to everyone, always helping the team, someone who you always looked up to. I hope his family is comforted by their many wonderful memories of Brendan.

“ Brendan and his family lived 2 doors from us on Morris St. Our family and his had a lot of good times together. I think about that often. How lucky we were to have an area like that. Me and my brothers did a lot together with Brendan and his brothers. I drive by those houses at least once a week, Really sorry to hear about Brendans passing without having a chance to talk to him again. My prayers are with his family.

“ Frank and Ruby We were shocked and deeply saddened when we received Pat's email about Brendan's passing on Yaquina Head. I first met Brendan and Bonnie when they bought The Vikings from the 2 "older" gentlemen that owned it when we bought #5 next door. I loved hanging out with them every year (except for the past few) when we would come to Nye beach. Usually we would have dinner at their house. Brendan would cook and Bonnie would entertain and we would have the most fun talking and laughing the night away. Sidecars..Of course, there was the annual golf tournament for a number of years. Those were fun times. I still have an image of Brendan's drive on #1 at Salishan one year - so high and arcing towards the trees...He had such a GREAT laugh!! I remember him dealing with teens riding through The Vikings on their skateboards. He loved that, didn't he!? We loved the old place so well that we made sure that we were there when the new owners dismantled the old viking and his ship. We incorporated pieces of the old ship in our cottage chair rail. Being business partners with Brendan and Bonnie for decades was always seamless and easy. Knowing that when I called The Vikings from our home in Littleton, CO to check on things that I could have such faith and trust in the team of Bonnie, Brendan and Becky that it was almost like I was there watching over my cottage myself. They were so kind and welcoming to Ruby when she became my partner. Seamless, again. There is no way that we can ever go to our little place by the sea that we will not think of Brendan and his smile. We are so very sad and send our love to Bonnie, Pat, Terry and Jeff. Sincerely, Frank and Ruby Benison

“ I lived two doors down from Brendan on Warren Street in Albany and , of course, attended VI with him. Being only 5'9" he would take me to the cleaners on his court in the driveway. I thought a lot of Brendan. I so wanted to get to Newport and reconnect. Loved his smile and friendship. Will miss connecting with him on fb. Peace my friend and prayers for Bonnie and the family. “ I met Brendan playing Little League baseball back in 1958 Albany New York and count him as one of my great friends during our developing years in Albany New York. We both attended Vincentian Institute High School 1959 through 1963. He was a tremendous athlete and great friend and will be missed. All who were fortunate to know Brendan are deeply saddened by the news of his passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Brendan and I grew up together in Albany NY and went to school with each other from kindergarten through high school. We were altar boys and our morning paper routes ended side by side and the rest of our days after delivering were spent with the greatest of fun trading baseball cards, playing stick ball(Brendan was Willie Mays and I was Ted Williams. We played on the same baseball team from 10 years old to 17, from Little League to American Legion baseball. Brendan was a wonderful basketball player and just great fun to be with. His wonderful mom, Ann with the great Irish wit taught us how to play poker(penny ante). Fortunately, most of the times, we graduated to higher stakes games and managed to win a few bucks. We had the greatest group of friends back in the late 50's and early 60's centered on good clean fun mostly revolving around sports and then awkwardly noticing the fairer sex. I don't believe any group of kids could have enjoyed a ring of true friends better than us. Brendan Carmody was a one of a kind special person who left an indelible mark on all who knew him. Gone from Albany for over 50 years but always to be remembered here. To Bonnie and his children I offer my sympathies for your loss. I have viewed the Lighthouse on the Internet and the setting is glorious. God bless Brendan and you all.
