

Brigitte Wallace

April 7, 1942 - July 2, 2017

Brigitte Wallace was born April 7, 1942 in Neustadt, Germany. She immigrated to Canada in 1953 with her parents, Karl-Heinz and Margarete Christine Frank, and in 1963, the family decided to move to California. They first settled in Long Beach, and then moved to China Lake where they spent many years. Brigitte married Bruce Wallace in 1978 and together they moved to Sonoma, California. After Bruce's retirement they settled in Waldport, Oregon. Brigitte had an enormous love for all animals, especially horses and her precious dogs. She supported various animal rescue causes, as well as the Oregon Coast Aquarium. Whenever she had the opportunity, she would take her visitors to see her favorite sea creatures. Brigitte was a beloved wife, a wonderful mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and friend. She leaves behind a grieving family. Brigitte was pre-deceased by her parents and her older sister Christa Callaghan in Canada. She is survived by her husband Bruce Wallace, her two sons, Glenn and Steven Hobbs, her beloved grandchildren Mikayla and Journey Hobbs, her first husband Stanley Hobbs of Lake Isabella, California, her sister Anne Frank and husband Michael Savoie and nephew David Frank-Savoie of Toronto, Canada. Brigitte will remain in our hearts forever.
