

Carmen L Smith

November 23, 1922 - April 6, 2017

Carmen Lily Smith, former Waldport resident, passed away April 6, 2017, in Anchorage, Alaska. Carmen was born to R. A. and Myrtle Williams on November 23, 1922, in Merrill, Oregon, where she lived into adulthood.

Carmen married William Hulon Smith on July 3, 1948 in Klamath Falls. She continued to live in Klamath Falls until her husband began construction on various dams in Oregon and California, eventually settling in Waldport in 1976. Her husband passed away in 1998, leading her to move to Anchorage, Alaska to be near family in 2004.

Carmen loved bowling on a league for many years, enjoyed music and dancing with her husband, and she was an avid reader.

Carmen is survived by her daughter Stephanie Warner, sons Dale and Mark, son-in-law Edward Warner, daughters-in-law Linda Smith and Marla Smith, grandchildren Michael Warner, Brandon Smith, Dawn Warner Reynolds, Anthony Smith, Craig Smith, and Katherine Smith, 11 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at Bateman Funeral Chapel in Newport on July 15, 2017, at 11:30 a.m. Internment following.
