"Find the Funny" Chris' Motto in his life of loving Politics and Stand Up Comedy. Despite being Quadriplegic from birth with a brilliant mind, Christopher lived a well accomplished full life. His mentors Pat Grimstad in his teen years of being a LC Republican to meeting Ambassador Dr. Alan Keyes and working on his campaign, he was on the go until a secondary neurological malfunction occurred 6 years ago.

Live stand-up comedy was his other go to enjoyment in this life. Loved being Center Stage in life and I was humbled and honored to be the stage hand as his caregiver/Mom. As a teen he passed over and came back to say "Jesus said the Pineapple Pizza and Red Wine is not ready for you, go back". Well the Pizza is ready now! Typical Chris find the funny in life in his eternal resting spot, he is neighbors with his local political mentor Pat Grimstad. 43.3 years of living and the medical advisors said he would never make it a month after being revived at birth. Hah!
