Clinton Theodore Handschuch

December 8, 1946 – September 19, 2023

Clinton Theodore Handschuch (Hurricane, Codfather) passed in loving care, surrounded by family the morning of September 19th in Waldport, Oregon.

Clint was a son, brother, husband, father, and grandfather who is survived by his wife, Christy; children Jon (Konnie) and Laura (David); grandchildren, Adalie, Sawyer, and Mathilda; and brother Henry (Kathe).

Clint survived the Vietnam War a hero, being recognized for heroic achievement with the Bronze Star and Army Commendation Medal for leadership and courage. Clint was an acknowledged businessman in the creation of multiple landscape businesses as owner that spanned multiple decades.

Clint contributed his time and energy by being on the Board of Directors for the Oregon Landscape Contractors Association. Clint was President of the Central Oregon Chapter for several years. Clint was also responsible for the grow-in, management, and care of Rivers Edge Golf Course for 10 years as Superintendent. Clint was Assistant Superintendent of Big Canyon Country Club respectively, earlier in his career.

Clint was a prolific golfer which he shared that passion for with his wife. Clint also had a passion for the Pacific Ocean in which he loved to surf, sail, fish, and just walk on the beach.

He will be remembered by his leadership, his infectious way of enhancing life, and opening his heart generously to family and friends he held dearest.

Clint's ashes will be laid to rest in the Pacific Ocean at sunset.
