

Cynthia Lou Fullman

July 9, 1958 - November 20, 2020

Cynthia Lou (Isakson) Fullman made her final excursion near the shores of Lincoln City, Oregon in Otis, OR, October 2020 at the age of 62. She was born in McMinnville, OR, on July 9th, 1958. During her life, she grew up in Port Orford, OR where she graduated from High School, participated in Port Orford parades, rode horses, married, had a family of five children that she raised in Hillsboro, OR, attended different Christian churches throughout her life including a Jewish Messianic church, enjoyed leather work (especially restoring saddles) and often surrounded herself with loving animals. Moving from her home in Hillsboro to Otis in April of 2018, having family members visit, horseback riding and being with her friends and being with her cats were some of the happiest moments for her. She also attended Faith Baptist Church and a Bible Study with friends in Lincoln City during the last few years of her life.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Delmer Isakson and Ellen Isakson.

She is survived by her children, Trudie Freed, Joe Fullman, John Fullman, Elizabeth Handyside, Rachel Castro, her former spouse Roger Fullman, her sister Rhonda Cheney and her husband Roy Cheney, her niece Carrie Grant, her Aunt Donna McCrea and Aunt Nancy James, her Uncle Joe Isakson along with cousins and many grandchildren.

There will be a Memorial Service Saturday, December 12th, 10:30am, at New Life Baptist Church in Hillsboro, OR 3440 E Main St, Hillsboro, OR 97123

To honor her, the family asks that you donate to the Lincoln County Animal Shelter at:

<https://www.co.lincoln.or.us/animalshelter/page/lincoln-county-animal-shelter>

Tribute Wall

TR

“ I love you, Mom.”

---

Trudie - December 08, 2020 at 12:00 AM