

Eli Hamill

May 12, 2017

Eli Hamill passed away at his home Friday, May 12, after a long battle with cancer. He attended school in Waldport in his youth, and helped his dad publish the local newspaper, the Steelhead. He served in the Navy as sonarman, graduated from Cal Poly on the GI Bill and went on to make a career in the printing business. Eli is survived by his wife, Carolyn, his son David and two grandchildren, Amanda and Travis as well as two stepchildren, Wendy Umphlett and Rob Campbell.

There will be a "Celebration of Life" for Eli at the Waldport Moose Hall, 3:00pm Saturday afternoon, May 20th. All are welcome.