

Esther J McDaniel

February 11, 1953 - April 11, 2020

Esther McDaniel was born on February 11th, 1953 in San Antonio, Texas to Antonio and Sadako. Esther earned her Associate's Degree and became an executive secretary in actuarial insurance. She was married to Dennis, and together they lived in Depoe Bay, Oregon.

Esther was known for her infectious smile, kind heart, and willingness to put everyone else's needs before hers. She was a loyal partner in life, an amazing mother and devoted grandmother of seven. She loved arts and crafts, finding antique furniture along the coast, and searching for hidden treasures at any thrift store she could find. She will truly be missed. Her husband wishes to thank her for giving him the best she had and could give, and looks forward to being with her again after this life and in the next.

Esther, a long time resident of Depoe Bay passed away April 11th 2020 at age 67 in her home. At her side was husband (of 43 years) and best friend Steven and youngest daughter Jennifer.
