

Frank J Miller

August 18, 1945 - March 24, 2018

Frank J Miller was born on August 18th, 1945 in Detroit, Michigan to Josephine and Harry Miller. As the son of a lieutenant commander in the US Navy, he spent his childhood in Saipan. As a young man, Frank joined the US Navy, serving proudly, having been sworn in by his father. Frank went on to be successful businessman. working in the construction industry in Washington and California. Throughout his life, Frank pursued his passion for cars. When he was a young man, he sometimes drove too fast. As an adult, he downshifted, and restored classic automobiles, driving slowly and admiring the purr of their engines.

Frank is survived by his daughter Alanah and son in law Mark. He is also survived by his granddaughters Wren and Fern. He is survived by his sister Marilyn and her daughters Sarah wife of John and their son Philip. Ella and her daughter Ashaya also survive Frank.