

James (Jimmy) R Paschall

March 30, 2000 - June 26, 2020

Jimmy Paschall was born on March 30th, 2000 in Springfield, Oregon. Jimmy's brother was Joel, and they had a lot of inside jokes and even wrote a little comic book of jokes and silly stories. He was known for being silly and having a great sense of humor. He knew just how to make people smile, and loved doing it. Jimmy was known for having a smile on his face and a laugh on his lips. Jimmy liked playing video games and enjoyed watching scary movies. As a boy, he loved legos and made a lot of inventions. His father was a home builder, Jimmy was learning the trade from him. He loved playing guitar with his father and brother, and especially loved hip hop and rap style music. Outside, he loved going to Victoria Park in Truro NS (Nova Scotia). Jimmy liked archery with targets, but not hunting. He loved animals, especially cats. He became a vegetarian because of his love of animals. He loved grandma's potato salad. Sadly, on June 26th, 2020 Jimmy passed away. There will be a graveside service held in Nova Scotia.
