

John R Anderson

September 7, 1944 - February 24, 2024

John Russell Anderson went to be with his Lord and Savior on February 24, 2024 at 3:07 pm.

John was born in Vallejo, CA. on September 7, 1944 to Winnefred Irene Currin and Arthur Ronald Anderson.

He grew up in Eugene, OR, graduating from North Eugene High.

John served two years in the Navy where he obtained a degree in radio.

He met the love of his life on a bus ride to San Francisco and married Lloydine Moore in Eugene, OR on September 25th, 1966.

John and Lloydine resided in Newport, OR, with their 3 children, where John owned a music store for a while, worked as a Radio DJ at KNPT for 15 years and an advertising salesman for the Newport News Times for 24 years.

A perfect day to John would be to pick up a cheese burger and a coke and take a nap looking out at the ocean.

He loved a good pun and looked forward to joking around with friends on a daily basis. His smile was contagious, brightening the lives of all that entered into his path. John had musical talents, playing the guitar and piano, along with having a love for writing songs and jingles. He also was a cartoonist, using each one of his talents to enhance all the lives around him.

The world will, without a doubt, be less bright without him.

John Russell Anderson was preceded in death by his mom Winnefred Irene Anderson and his sister, Francis Ruth Anderson.

John is survived by his children, son, Chris Anderson, daughter Molly and husband Danny Steele and daughter Amy Lehnherr, Grandchildren, Ian Anderson, Juda Anderson, Ashley Trendall, Danny Steele, Brody Steele, Kendall Lehnherr and Noah Lehnherr, 6 great grandchildren, his two best friends in the whole world, Barb and Teresa (co-workers at News Times) and special friend Diana Moore.

“ I'm not sure even what to say other than that I wish I would have gotten to know my grandfather more and had a true relationship with him! I'm forever reminded by my mother that I'm quite like him in many ways which is pretty neat considering the absence in each others lives! You will forever be missed dearly grandpa and I'll be waiting for the day we can rekindle our friendship we never got the chance to have!! RIL grandpa ❤️
