“ I worked for Louis in the twilight of his logging career - just the two of us out in the woods with a cat and his Skagit J-3. I got to know him very well. He was a great employer and a great man. He made hard work seem easy, almost pleasurable. He had a dry sense of humor and we laughed a lot - me more than him. One afternoon, coming down from the job, we drove past some some guys fishing in a creek and he said,
