“ I miss you so much. It has been just over a year. I can't believe that you aren't here anymore. I try to push through everyday but I have to be truthful that somedays are hard. Somedays I don't even want to get up. I just want to be there with you, aunt pat and aunt donna. But I know that Marco and Dad rely on my to cont to be strong. If that is something that you taught me was it is easy to give up.. its much harder to fight. I love you Mom!

“ Mom, I miss you so much and cannot find the words to express that. I'm still struggling to realize this is the new "norm" as I look at your picture. I remember the day this picture was taken and how happy you were. I'm forever grateful that I was able to spend a little time with you the weekend before you left us. I will cherish our last laugh, last talk, last hug and last "I love you". I will carry it in my heart for as long as I'm alive. I have four voice mail messages on my cell phone from you. I'm grateful to hear your voice and would give anything to be able to call you again, but for now I will talk to you in my prayers. Love you always and forever, Shawna

“ How do I sum up 35 years. You gave me life twice. You were my best friend. You understood me when know one else did. You will never know the impact that you truly left on my life. I am your son. You always told me " No one will ever love you like your mother", well Mom No one will ever love you like your son. I know from this moment forward until we meet again you will be watching over me. And don't worry I will take care of Dad. You truly will be miss and I will live on in your memory. Until me meet again
