“ 9/21/2017: I just found out today about Mark's passing and am moved to tears. That's quite something as I'm known as rather stoic. Mark and I never stood side by side, shook hands or heard the sound of each other's voices. But, we shared written word and political views, and as a result I have been enriched. My heart goes out to his family and friends that knew him best. R.I.P. Mark
