“ May you gain strength from the comfort that only God can give through His wonderful promise to "swallow up death forever and wipe tears from their faces." (Isaiah 25:8) And because of His undeserved kindness and love for you and dear Martha, He promises that "the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." (Isaiah 26:19) Yes, life will be restored to Martha and she will live again with her loved ones here on earth. The Bible gives hope.
