

Merl E Moore

February 5, 1959 - December 12, 2024

Merl Edwin Moore, 65, passed away on December 12, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer. Merl was born in Seattle Washington, February 5, 1959 and adopted by his parents Charles and Clara Moore. Later in life he reconnected with his biological mother Marlene Shafer.

Merl or Radar as so many knew him as, was a long time Cab driver in Boise, ID where many enjoyed his joke of the day. Merl was a very well known wedding officiant in Boise for more than 20 years. It brought so much joy to his heart bringing people together. During the Christmas season you would often see him around town with Santa as Santa's Elf, Tinsel. Merl married the love of his life Tami Greenhalgh December 19, 2012. In 2021, Tami and Merl sold their house in Boise and followed their hearts to the Oregon coast. There, they enjoyed crabbing, long walks on the beach with their dogs, and most of all no snow.

He is proceeded in death by his parents Charles and Clara; and biological mother Marlene. Merl was loved by so many and is already immensely missed. He is survived by his wife, Tami; daughters Tabi, Christina, Kathleen, and Joy and step daughters Joelene and Janelle; and twelve grandchildren.
