

Richard D Bappe

July 3, 2018 - February 18, 2018

Richard Bappe was born on July 3rd, 2018 in Ames, Iowa to Glenn and Neva. After receiving his bachelors degree, he became an educator and a painter. He was married to Jill, and together they lived in Waldport, Oregon. On February 18th, 2018 Richard passed away at the age of 70 years old.

Tribute Wall

JL

“ As a teenager I ended up at Angell job Corp in the painting apprenticeship program Bappe as we called him was a great instructor I remember helping him move up on the hill in Waldport this was in 1986 I graduated in 1988 he was more than just our instructor he'd take us on outings all over the coast I met his wife I can't remember how many children he had at that time but I do remember at least one blond youngster so sorry to hear of his passing he taught me everything I know and I'm still painting today I owe him my career he will be deeply missed

Jason Lees - August 30, 2019 at 12:00 AM