“ Love you, Rick!

I will never forget all our experiences and the fun we had. Like you, Kerrie-Ann am I taking our motorcycle endorsement class together and going to see the play of “Rocky horror story” (I couldn’t think of a better person to see that with 🤪 and the floats that we enjoyed together during the last few summers, even the one where you didn’t put enough air in your raft and I had to paddle tow you all the way back to shore. 🤪

Love you and your sarcasm and how you could enjoyed tinkering by customizing your bikes, scooters, trailers the way you liked them and making beautiful wood projects for loved ones. Loved that you cared for people more than they will ever know and the joy you had being the umpire for little league and all the kids. The ultimate joyful times were your camping trips with nephews and niece along with siblings you were so grateful to see their babies and be a part of their lives. Love you Rick!! Rest in Peace 🕊️
