Terry was born on June 11, 1940 in Seattle, WA to Bill and Virginia Lowe. He passed away at 80 years old from a Hemorrhagic Stroke on September 6, 2020 at Samaritan Hospital in Newport, OR surrounded by his loving family.

Terry grew up in Seattle attending Queen Anne High, and later moved to Snohomish, WA, where his family bought a farm to raise racehorses. He graduated from Snohomish High in 1958. He enlisted, and spent the next 21 years serving in the United States Coast Guard, stationed along the West Coast from Ketchikan, Alaska to San Francisco, California. He was a survivor of the Jan. 12, 1961; Columbia River "Triumph Mermaid Disaster".

He married the Love of his Life Patricia Lee Evens in Ocean City, Washington in 1961. They raised two children (Terry and Robin Lowe) in Dublin, CA until he retired from the Coast Guard as E9 Master Chief in 1979. The family moved to his wives' hometown of Newport, OR and he spent the next 21 years working at GP Mill in Toledo. He retired at 62, but never slowed down. He was always looking for new hobbies to keep him busy. They included: woodworking, antler art, kayaking, winemaking, painting cars, and gardening. He loved classic cars, and motorcycles. He bought his first Harley at 79 years old. Terry was such an energetic, hardworking man with an absolute "Heart of Gold". He had a quick wit, and his laughter was contagious. He loved that no one ever believed his age.
