

Trudy Nellie Hueth

May 4, 1933 - March 17, 2016

Trudy Hueth passed away at the age of 82 on March 17, 2016. She was born on May 4, 1933 in Ritzville, Washington to Vern and Louise Kelson who resided in Siletz for many years. She married Earl Hueth in 1949 in Couer d'Alene, Idaho and moved to Siletz, Oregon in 1956.

Trudy had many accomplishments throughout her lifetime, but her greatest and most important was her family. She had four children, 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. She loved family time during the holidays, she loved family camping trips at the different lakes throughout Oregon and she enjoyed going for drives and taking in the scenery. In her early years she was a member of the Jaycettes of Siletz and a member of the Siletz Library and the Grange. In 1967, Trudy and her husband Earl built and owned Little Chief Drive-In in Siletz. One of Trudy's loves was flowers, so they started their own business called, "Grandma's Bloomers". Her and Earl spent many years growing plants from seedlings and working together in the greenhouses preparing for spring harvest. Another true enjoyment was gardening. She knew every name of every plant, flower and tree that exists. The two of them worked side by side creating a beautiful yard and landscape that they would sit and enjoy together each day.

Trudy is survived by her husband, Earl Hueth of Siletz; children, Twila Porter and husband Brian of Springfield, Glenda Nielsen and her husband Bob of Siletz, Darla Zagel and her husband Jon of Newport, David Hueth and his wife Kelly of Siletz and sister, Carmen Mitchell of Forest Grove.

Trudy was preceded in death by her father, Vernon Kelson of Siletz; mother, Louise Kelson of Siletz and brother, Duane Kelson of Springfield.
