IN LOVING MEMORY:

I awoke this morning missing a friend,

A brother who lives within my heart;

The tears are for the times and smiles we shared.

It is true, birth is the announcement of death to come;

The soul travels from the light of beauty,

As it travels back within that same light.

We'll always hold a place for you my friend and my brother.

You were a son, father, grandfather and brother;

A survivor against all odds.

The time of rest has come;

The sharing of your life must live within us now;

As the ocean sounds,

The wind dances off the fern patches;

I awoke this morning missing a friend,

A brother who lives within my heart.
